

ACRC Anti-Racism Group October 2022 Notes

In attendance:

Mollie O'Neil, Lisette Burton, Donelle Hauser, Tami Soper, Rebecca Preddie, April Wall-Parker, Nick Ryan, Candace Ott, Wendy Wang

Notes:

Culture – things people attribute to this word

- People have different definitions of culture
- Radical openness – opening ourselves up to the experience of others, without having to explain
- bell hooks – Radical openness
- Dr. Anton Hart – wrote a paper on radical openness (see below)

Data – tracking data is hard because language is changing over time

- Asking people to self-identify is hard for data

Language access – how programs / orgs are approaching it

- Sign language in programs, not having the capacity
- Having staff step in for additional (pay them for this!)

Resources:

Latino Youth Representation in Data

Pew Research Center – Who is Hispanic?

Pew Report – What Does it Mean to be Asian in America?

bell hooks videos

Choosing the Margin as a Space of Radical Openness

Dr. Anton Hart's paper